DAY 2 - Cairo

Breakfast at hotel then start half day tour to visit the Great Pyramids & Sphinx. Through the three Great Pyramids are the most famous and prominent monuments at Giza, the site has actually been a Necropolis almost since the beginning of Pharaonic Egypt. A tomb just on the outskirts of the Giza site dates from the reign of the First Dynasty of Pharaoh Wadj (Djet), and jar sealed discovered in a tomb in the southern part of Giza mention the Second Dynasty Pharaoh Ninetjer. But it was the Fourth Dynasty Pharaoh Khufu (Cheops) who placed Giza forever at the heart of funerary devotion, a city of the dead that dwarfed the cities of the living nearby. On its southwest diagonal is the pyramid of his son Khephren (Chepren, Khafre). Although it is smaller, a steeper angle results in the illusion that they are the same size. Furtehr along the southwest diagonal is the smallest of the three, the pyramid of Khepren's ons, Menkaure. It is also the most unusual. Return to hotel for overnight stay.
